RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

October 19, 1976

Be it resolved that we express our deep appreciation to the following:

The Becks Baptist Church and its pastor, Paul Wonders, Jr., for the use of their fine facilities and their hospitality as gracious hosts of the association.

To our associational officers and for their enthusiastic leadership, their wise counsel, and their Christian witness.

To our superintendent of missions, Mr. Thurman Fox, and his staff for the continuing progressive leadership given to the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

And that we pledge our full support to cooperate with the new Associational Officers and with one another for the coming year; and that we covenant together to pray that God will guide, strengthen, and use our local and associational ministries in an even more productive way in the forthcoming year.

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

Reports indicate rising concern about and encouraging participation in the Bible teaching ministry of the churches. Statistical information is not yet available, but it is believed that modest increase in Sunday School enrollment has taken place. Thus it is hoped that the churches of the association have shared to some degree in the inspiring advance taking place in Sunday School work throughout the Southern Baptist Convention.

In our denomination there is a new concern for outreach; enrollment is increasing significantly, proving that interest in Bible study is a continuing potential for growth; there is awakening awareness that the quality of teaching must have greater depth in Biblical truth and greater relevance for the needs of people; and there is renewed awareness that the Bible teaching ministry of the church is the most effective means for evangelism and for involving Christians in the total mission of the church.

Significant projects of the associational Sunday School organization during the past year have been: (1) A Worker's Improvement Clinic of age-group conferences led by experienced specialists with emphasis on Sunday School administration and greater efficiency in Sunday School work; (2) Promotion of High Attendance Day in Sunday School; (3) Support given to the preview study of Hosea for pastors, preparatory to the January Bible study emphasis, which was sponsored by the Sunday School Department of the Baptist State Convention; (4) A Vacation Bible School Clinic; (5) A Sunday School Planning Workshop for pastors and Sunday School directors, led by James Chatham of the Baptist Sunday School Board.

A special project of much promise and value was the West Stokes Area Sunday School Clinic led by Thurman Fox in response to the request of the churches in that area of the association.

The associational Sunday School director has been happy to respond to a number of requests from churches for participation in conferences related to Sunday School work.

An association-wide conference was held on October 4-5 of this year at the First Baptist Church of Winston-Salem, in which the major emphasis focused on improved ways and methods of Sunday School teaching. LeRoy Ford, of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary faculty, along with other widely experienced Sunday School leaders from North Carolina and Virginia constituted the faculty. The Sunday School Department of the Baptist State Convention, led by Burrel Lucas, shared in sponsoring this conference.

Plans for 1976-77 will include projects to assist the Sunday School leadership in the churches to implement a more effective outreach program, to gain a more adequate understanding of curriculum materials and the principles involved in their development to meeting the needs of individuals and achieving the major spiritual objectives of the church.

One of the Nation-wide Bible Teaching/Learning Workshops, sponsored jointly by the Baptist Sunday School Board and the Sunday School Department of the Baptist State Convention, will be held at Ardmore Baptist Church on April 11, 1977. This will offer a unique opportunity for Sunday School workers to receive guidance from some of the strongest leadership in the denomination.

All the churches of the association are encouraged to make a new commitment to the primacy of their Bible teaching-learning mission.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION REPORT

Woman's Missionary in North Carolina is the largest WMU in the Southern Baptist Convention. This gives the women, girls, and pre-school children in our large association great responsibility for leadership and achievement. Our Associational WMU has again received Distinguished Recognition for our program this year.

The Executive Secretary of WMU-SBC, Miss Carolyn Weatherford, was the speaker for the annual meeting in April. Baptist Women had 370 for their Fellowship Night, and the spiritual highlight for some 85 women was a Prayer Retreat at Mundo Vista. The Associational WMU sponsored learning and fellowship activities for both leaders and members of the different age levels.

Associational WMU Council members went to leadership conferences at Ridgecrest and Mundo Vista in August, and led conferences for our WMU leaders in September in two associational locations.

WMU provides the Pilot Mountain women, girls, and preschoolers with study programs which expans their understandings and action programs which enlarge their sympathies.

ORDINATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The Association's Ordination Committee was called upon only once during the last associational year to serve as a council for the examination of a candidate for the gospel ministry.

In that case, after a full examination and careful evaluation, the Committee was of the opinion that the candidate was not ready for ordination and so recommended to the church. The church concurred in the opinion of the Committee and did not ordain the candidate.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL MINISTRIES REPORT

Christian Social Ministries begins in the local church: We Baptists hold to the ideal that every member of a Baptist church is a missionary and that every layman/laywoman is as fully responsible for missions as professional ministries.

Those are fine ideals . . . but to reach those ideals the members must become involved in the work of the church! Mission organizations need to ACT on what they learn. The key is "involvement." Since people are individuals and churches are different, no set method or plan can be formulated which will work in every church; but, individual involvement becomes group involvement!

Christian Social Ministries has two ingredients which welfare agencies do not have: Christian love and Christian concern. We are concerned for the needs of the body and the mind as well as of the soul. A person is a whole being, a "total" personality . . . and salvation involves all of the person. Giving a man food, clothing and medicine doesn't save him, but a man who is hungry or who has no decent clothes or who is in poor health and neglected is not too likely to be responsive to the gospel (his physical condition affects his mental condition, which certainly affects his spiritual condition) . . . so, as we minister to the body, and ease the mind, we gain access to the soul!

Many of man's physical and mental needs offer opportunities for the church to show that the Lord loves and cares.

During the past year the Christian Social Ministries Committee acted upon two requests from the Executive Committee: (1) Investigate and report on the CSM needs in Stokes County, which is being actively pursued by Thurman Fox to determine the feasibility of locating a Mission Center in Danbury, and (2) Support of an educational fund for Sam Tswana, native of Rhodesia, recommended by Lewis Ludlum.

Long ago the beloved disciple, John, wrote: "My children! Our love should not be just words and talk; it must be true love, which shows itself in action."

ATHLETIC COMMITTEE REPORT

The Athletic Committee has understood its purpose as facilitating interchurch competitive sports among youth in ways that enhance the youth mission programs of the churches and develop the Christian character of the participants.

In 1975-76 the Athletic Committee oversaw 33 basketball teams in three divisions and five leagues. The divisions were Crusader (grades 4-6), Pioneer (grades 7-9), and High School (grades 9-12). For the second successive year the top Pioneer team for our league, Clemmons First Baptist, won the state tournament.

Funds to operate the program came from participating churches with the Brotherhood providing some funds to assist in purchasing trophies. This had the effect of linking the work of this committee with missions in a practical way.

A Pioneer baseball league was initiated with two teams and the winner advanced to the state tournament finals. A new approach was tried in softball with 5 coed teams. The good response to this program suggests further coordination with the Student/Youth Committee.

EVANGELISM COMMITTEE REPORT

On a statewide basis there is an increased interest in the work of evangelism in our local churches. This interest is evidenced by an overflow of attendance of more than 2600 people at the thirtieth Statewide Evangelism Conference in Asheville, February 2-4. Churches continue to show interest in the Lay Evangelism Schools, with 14,248 people being trained in some 1150 churches and 62 associations. Almost 15,000 youth pastors and adult leaders attended the sixth Statewide Youth Evangelism Night on August 13 at the Greensboro Coliseum. On an associational level, a number of churches have participated in lay evangelism schools in the past year under the leadership of our Associational Director of Missions, Thurman Fox.

On May 23, the Evangelism Committee sponsored an association-wide evangelistic rally, entitled the Bicentennial Freedom Celebration. Estimates of attendance ranged between 3000 and 3500, with several hundred being turned away. Dr. Vance Havner brought an inspiring message, preceded by the ministry of a mass choir from the churches of approximately 400 persons. The purpose was to stimulate churches and individuals in evangelism during our bicentennial year.

During the coming year, we anticipate encouraging our churches to involve themselves in a simultaneous revival effort, October 23-30, 1977; additional lay evangelism schools; lay renewal weekends; and we intend to bring to our churches the YES program, entitled Youth Evangelism Strategy. This is an evangelistic ministry among the young people of our churches which involves a leadership family, a touch ministry, discipleship groups, and JOY explosion. We urge churches throughout the Association to pray for the work of evangelism and to implement strategies to involve their members in sharing their faith as never before. We have plans for an associational-wide Evangelistic Rally, entitled, "Spring Awakening," Sunday, May 22. This will be followed by the Associational Evangelism Conference, Monday, May 23.

NEW WORK COMMITTEE REPORT

The following letter was received by the Executive Committee on August 9, 1976:

August 1, 1976

To the Executive Committee of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

In accordance with the constituting service of Pfafftown Baptist Church, Sunday, March 21, 1976 at 3:00 p.m., we request fellowship with the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. We further commit ourselves to cooperate with the North Carolina Baptist State Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention.

Attached you will find a copy of our constitution and bylaws.

In Christ,
Eddie Brackett
Pastor

The New Work Committee recommends that the Pfafftown Baptist Church be received under the watchcare of the Association for one year in accordance with Article III of the Constitution of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association.

Dr. David Beavers, Chairman

STUDENT AND YOUTH COMMITTEE REPORT

The Student and Youth Committee of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association has as its purpose to "seek ways of involving local youth in creative relationships to each other, to local church programs, and cooperative Christian ministries."

The Committee planned two musical programs during the months of June and July. We were pleased that approximately 1500 people from our churches attended the "TRUTH" Concert in June. Several churches were also present for the "FIRST LOVE" concert in July.

The Committee is seeking to expand the program to include additional areas of ministry during the coming months.

LONG RANGE PLANNING COMMITTEE REPORT

Your Long Range Planning Committee has done little this associational year; however, we have not been completely idle. We have met; we have made a budget request to the Finance Committee; and we have set forth for ourselves a tentative next step. The next step has two major facets, which are: (1) an associational self-study which involves six to nine months of work and (2) a planning retreat. The retreat would be for developing strategy to meet the needs of individuals, churches, and the associational community as discovered through the associational self-study.

PERSONNEL COMMITTEE REPORT

The Personnel Committee makes the following recommendations:

1. That the job title of the Superintendent of Missions be changed to Executive Director of Associational Missions in accordance with the Home Mission Board recommendation.
2. That Rev. Lewis Ludlum be designated as Director of Missions Emeritus.
3. That we extend a call to Rev. Ron Pinkerton as Director of Christian Social Ministries.

MISSION VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL REPORT

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association has given me an experience that is hard to describe. For the past two summers I have coordinated Mission Vacation Bible Schools in Forsyth and Stokes Counties. I have concentrated on low-income trailer parks and housing developments. Through this ministry, over 1600 children have been involved.

Mission Vacation Bible School is very informal. We hold it under a tree at the trailer park or development. It is a five day program which includes Bible stories, refreshments, crafts and games. For most of the children, this is the first contact with any type of Christian ministry.

This summer has been full of ups and downs. I have seen children in situations that I thought could not exist in this area. I have seen things that make me glow with happiness.

Let me start with the "ups" — The children's response to Vacation Bible School is overwhelming! Every day they were waiting for me and as I drove up they would dance and cheer. The attention to the stories was excellent. They would sit on the blanket with their eyes glued to the pictures. They were full of questions that needed answering. The amount that the children learned can't be described. We not only discussed Jesus and His life but how the Word of Christ applies to daily life.

All of the children were so loving and needed attention so badly. Often I would have three small children on my lap while I tried to tell the stories. They showered me with their small gifts of wild flowers, cereal box surprises and drawings. The children usually would plead to have VBS "every day until school starts." The need certainly exists to spend this much time, but unfortunately the amount of people willing to involve themselves is low.

I have seen parents that try to do the best they can for these kids. But, this is only a very small fraction. I have talked with mothers who get two hours of sleep each night. They work third shift so they can be home to fix breakfast for their kids. A few of the mothers have even apologized for the situation they are in.

Another "up" of this summer is the warm response that I received from a few of the churches. The few that have sponsored a Mission VBS generate the excitement of the week. They cannot believe how such a small program can have such an effect on both the children and the helpers.

To sum up the "Ups" of the summer is an easy job. It is simply the deep, loving response that I have shared with the kids.

The "downs" of the summer is not an easy job to sum. I have been in "hard-core" areas and seen "hard-core" situations. I have seen pathetic homes that I had only read about. I never wanted to believe that all this trash goes on in our association. I am coming in contact with more and more Christians who refuse to believe that it exists.

These kids are funny little humans! They are babies in the sense of love and attention they starve for. They are adults in that they grow up so fast and see so much of adult misery. These children tell me things that almost make my hair stand up. They can shock you with the words that they hear everyday. I have seen children who didn't know which daddy was their daddy. Ninety-nine per cent of the kids came from broken homes. I had a little boy who was stabbed because the man was after his mother.

I have had my favorite little girl come to VBS with long pants to hide her legs. Later she pulled up her pant legs to show me where her aunt had beaten her. It made my stomach weak to see the whelps and swollen bruises. Events like this are a common occurance.

I have had children so filthy dirty it was hard to tell what color they were. This is not just dirt from playing outside. This is accumulated filth! One day a little girl name Mallie was so filthy that it was unhealthy. I sent her home to take a bath and, sure enough, someone scrubbed her shining. When she came back, I barely recognized this beautiful little blonde.

I have also become very concerned with dental hygiene. I would guess that 80 per cent of these children have never brushed their teeth. All of them have at least one tooth that is rotten. So many of them have black rotten nubs where strong white teeth should be. It is really scary when a beautiful child smiles at you and your stomach tightens at the sight of their mouth.

I could go on and on to attempt to describe the vicious cycle of poverty. The best way to get an insight is to dedicate eight hours of your next summer. Just a few hours of your summer could make such a difference for a group of youngsters. They desperately need to know that the members of the church down the street care for them and welcome them to the church. There is so much that we can all do! But, we soothe our consciences by saying, "We have our own VBS at church," or "Honey, our church is so busy now we could not do another thing!"

As you can tell, the "downs" are much harder to sum up. As I finish my summer's work, the "downs" are not what I remember first. I think of all the little friends I have made and the influence of VBS on their lives. Thanks to Pilot Mountain Baptist Association for this opportunity!

9. Dr. Randall Lolley brought the afternoon address. Taking his text from Mark 9:17, he spoke on punctuation marks. The last punctuation mark was added to the English language in 1671 until recently, when Remington Rand came out on their typewriters with "interrobang" - a cross between an exclamation mark and a question mark. Dr. Lolley challenged the Association to be involved in bold ministries.

10. Rev. Tom Womble recognized Rev. R. C. Walden, clerk, to give the Executive Committee report. Motion was made and carried to accept the report.

12. Dr. Dewey Kerr, chairman, made a motion to accept the report of the Nominating Committee as printed on pages A1-3 in the Book of Reports. There were no additional nominations. Motion carried.

13. The Personnel Committee report was given by T. L. Fox in the absence of Rev. Dan Griffin, chairman, as printed on pages A27, A28, and A33. He elaborated on the salary recommendations in the proposed budget. The recommendations are that there be a ten percent increase for Secretary A, Director of Christian Social Ministries, and Director of Missions; salary for Secretary B remain the same. Salary for a recommended position of Director of Church Development is $8,000, which represents six months. It is also being recommended that $2,600 be included in the budget for special secretarial help. Mr. Fox shared more information on the proposed position for a Director of Church Development. Rev. Warren Carr moved that the Personnel Committee report be deferred until after the budget adoption. After a second by Amis Daniel, the motion carried.

14. Rev. Marvin Garrison, treasurer, called attention to the Financial Report on pages A36-39 of the Book of Reports and moved that it be received as a matter of information. Motions carried.

15. Ike Worrell, chairman of the Finance Committee, called attention to the Proposed Budget on page A28 in the Book of Reports as a matter of information.

16. Miscellaneous Business was called for. Rev. Spurgeon Hays reminded those present of the Forsyth Chaplaincy Program and the employment of a chaplain to serve the Women's Prison, Advancement Center, Juvenile Detention, and City Jail.

17. Dr. David Beavers, New Work Committee chairman, gave their report as printed in the Book of Reports. He recognized Rev. Eddie Brackett, pastor of Pfafftown, and moved that the Association grant full fellowship to this church. The motion was seconded and carried.

18. T. L. Fox was called on to recognize associational leaders for 1977-78. He spoke concerning the Program Budget Process and used the Missionary Baptist Fellowship as an example to show the process. Three of the leaders gave a personal word concerning the proposed programs for next year: R. C. Walden, Sunday School; Larry White, Church Music; and Linda Fowler, Woman's Missionary Union.

19. Baptist State Convention and Agency representatives were recognized. Dr. Ernest Upchurch spoke briefly as representative of all the agencies.

20. Rev. Tom Womble, moderator, announced the afternoon session was ending 30 minutes earlier than anticipated. He recognized Rev. Homer Good to give directions for supper.

21. David and Donna Miller, Oaklawn, presented special music.

22. Rev. Ed Stines, vice moderator, led in prayer.

EVENING SESSION

1. The Evening Session began at 7:00 P.M. with Rev. Tom Womble, moderator, presiding. The congregation joined in singing "Like A River Glorious."

2. Rev. Bency Smith, pastor of Forest Hill, read John 21:15ff. Rev. Marion Rector, pastor of Crestwood, led in prayer.

3. Special music, "The Church Triumphant, " was presented by HeirBorn, an ensemble from Calvary, led by Larry White.

4. Mr. Wimble recognized T. L. Fox to present the report of the associational staff. Mr. Fox introduced Rev. Steve Ayers, pastor/director of the Danbury Project, who told of the work in the Danbury area. Ron Pinkerton presented the work of Christian Social Ministries and then introduced Alvin Garrison, a member of Lewisville. Mr. Garrison told what the apartment ministry at Willow Trace Apartments meant to their church.

5. Larry White led the congregation in singing "Amazing Grace," followed by a time for business and reports.

6. Rev. Paul Wonders, chairman of the Constitution Committee, moved that their report, printed on pages A6-11 of the Book of Reports, be adopted. Motion was seconded by Rev. Jim Saul. Mr. Wonders then went over some of the major changes in the proposed Constitution. Rev. Spurgeon Hays brought up several areas of concern. Rev. Fred Chilton, a member of the Constitution Committee, spoke in favor of the proposed constitution. Rev. Warren Carr offered the following substitute motion: That the report be referred to the Executive Committee for additional study. Motion was seconded by Rev. Amis Daniel. Dr. Gary Chapman asked for clarification of the substitute motion-if the intent of the motion was to refer to the Executive Committee plus suspend the rules. The moderator ruled that action was to refer the constitution to the Executive Committee for additional study only. Rev. J. J. Thornburg asked, "Does this mean that the Constitution Committee will no longer have anything to do with this or will it work in conjunction with the Executive Committee?" The moderator said he interpreted the substitute motion to mean the Constitution Committee would work along with the Executive Committee. The motion to refer the proposed constitution to the Executive Committee was carried by approximately 70-49.

7. The Long Range Planning Committee report was given by chairman Ed Hendricks. He moved that the Association engage in long range planning study, using the Associational Strategy Planning instrument or some similar procedure, and that the Association direct the Long Range Planning Committee to proceed with that process. Mr. Hendricks explained that this would probably be a two year task. Motion was seconded and carried.

8. Tom Womble, noting that the time allotted for business was almost gone, announced that the budget would be presented after the evening message.

9. The Order of Business Committee chairman, Bill Angell, made a motion that next year's Associational Annual Meeting be held at South Fork Baptist Church. The motion was seconded and passed.

10. The Resolutions Committee, Dr. Gary Chapman chairman, reported no resolutions had been presented to them and they had no resolutions to present.

11. Tom Womble gave time for miscellaneous business. Rev. Warren Carr made the following motion: I move that the rules be suspended in order that the officers of the Association, officers of the Executive Committee, and the new and old Constitution Committee meet and recommend to the Executive Committee at its next meeting what aspects of this recommended constitution need to be put into operation before next year - what is necessary to keep our association working properly. Motion was seconded and carried.

12. Tom Womble introduced Rev. Carlos Owens, missionary to Tanzania, Africa, as guest speaker for the evening.

13. HeirBorn, ensemble from Calvary led by Larry White, presented special music, "It Is Finished."

14. Carlos Owens brought a challenging and informative message on world missions.

15. Ike Worrell, chairman of the Finance Committee, moved the adoption of the proposed budget. Motion was seconded by Rev. Mervin Garrison. After discussion, a substitute motion was made by Dr. Edwin Hendricks. Said Dr. Hendricks: "I am a member of Wake Forest and have been a member of the Finance Committee for some eight or nine years. One of the problems we have found in the Finance Committee over a number of years is the problem of this surplus fund. We have found this problem again in the Executive Committee and, as Brother Daniel pointed out, we have found ourselves in a state of almost total confusion. When the Finance Committee met at the time of the adoption of the recommended budget we were presented with what I thought was a well-worked through budget. As chairman of one of the committees having gone through that process myself, I felt it was basically a good process. Later on some questions arose as to the process but essentially I think it was a very good process we went through. We came up with a budget designed with what we used to call in the Army a "fudge factor" - the expectation that the budget was going to be cut a little bit to bring it in line with projected expenditures. My own committee had done exactly that way with the realization that the total recommended budget was considerably larger than the total expected income for this year and a reasonable expectation of the projected income for next year. It was at this point that I frankly made the motion myself to recommend this budget to the Association--for two reasons. One, the process was very legitimate and very valid and, two, I saw this as a way of creating the kind of controversy and kind of interest in the Executive Committee of the Association and in this Association that we have seen created in the last few weeks-to bring the attention of the Executive Committee to this problem-to the fact we have these funds and do not have a designated purpose for them. There are those who have the impression these funds were designated for some purpose. To bring to the attention of the Association that we have these funds and are not sure what we are supposed to do with them. So that at some time in the future we can resolve this issue and decide what we are going to do with these funds. If we are going to use them for building, fine. Let's get on with building a building. If we are not going to build a building, fine. Let's decide what use we can put these funds to and proceed in that direction. I frankly am a bit perturbed at the thought of expending all these funds-or projecting the expenditure of a great portion of these funds-in one year's budget as we have done at this point.

To that end, I make the following recommendation. I would like to move this a as a motion:

First, that we refer the 1977-78 Budget to the new Finance Committee for reconsideration according to the following guidelines:

A. That $50,000.00 of the $69,168.44 in the associational accounts as of September 30, 1977, be reserved for future associational needs.

B. That the proposed employment of an additional staff member be deferred until after the next Annual Meeting of the Association.

Second, that a new budget be prepared by the new Finance Committee and submitted to the next Executive Committee meeting-according to these guidelines-to go into effect upon approval of the Executive Committee. Items such as staff salaries to be retroactive to November 1.

Third, until this is done, that the terms of the 1976-77 budget be in effect until a new budget is submitted and approved by the Executive Committee."

Hendricks' motion was seconded by Dr. J. William Angell. After discussion the substitute motion carried.

16. Tom Womble led in a prayer of benediction. Annual session adjourned at 9:30 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,
R. C. Walden, Clerk

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Why the Sunday School? It may seem strange that when the idea of the Sunday School was first conceived and promoted a great many pastors and church leaders opposed strongly, and sometimes bitterly, the idea.

It should seem strange now, exceedingly strange, that masses of people in our churches bypass the Sunday School. A general estimate is that half the members of Southern Baptist churches are not enrolled in Sunday School.

There are various explanations for this situation, various reasons to account for it. One reason, we will likely agree, is that the Sunday School program in our churches calls for improvement in effectiveness. While we recognize tremendous strides of progress in growth and quality during the past fifty or more years, there is tremendous urgency to achieve improvement more nearly commensurate with the significance of teaching all the people the eternal truth of Holy Scripture.

Assistance to the churches in this respect has been the goal of the associational Sunday School program. Many factors are indispensable to improving the Bible teaching ministry of the churches. Some of these may well be listed here.

1. Improving the understanding and deepening the conviction of church members that the church has a teaching mission. To be true to the New Testament pattern, a church must be a teaching church, its total life and program being geared toward the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry and the growth of Christians toward full maturity in likeness to Christ and in service to Christ (Eph. 4:11-16). Jesus' commission in Matthew 28:19-20 is the charter for the teaching church.

2. Developing a greater concern for outreach to people not enrolled in Sunday School - both resident church members not enrolled and people in the community who need to be reached. Concern for them must be translated into wise and continual action to reach them - to win lost people to Christ, to reach families with a ministry of love, and to involve Christians in the learning that contributes to faithful Christian Discipleship. Unreached multitudes are potential converts for the joy of the Lord and potential workers for the building up of his church.

3. Training workers for a higher level of knowledge and skill to serve in the Sunday School. Such training must aim at growing knowledge of the truth of the Bible, deepening, conviction about the great realities of the Christian faith, and growing understanding of the spiritual needs and learning abilities of people. Further, Sunday School workers need training in the principles and methods of administration and teaching. Improvement in the Bible teaching program of the church both merits and demands qualified and trained workers who can be the instruments of the Holy Spirit for teaching-learning the truth of the Bible, the way of salvation in Christ, and the way of living the Christian life.

The factors listed above are not innovations for a new scheme of improvement. They are the solid and unchanging principles absolutely indispensable to improvement. These factors have been the central focus of concern promoted by the Sunday School Director of the Association the past few years. The associational Sunday School Conference planned for October 3-4, which will have passed by the time of the Annual Meeting, will seek to stress these same fundamental imperatives for a more effective Bible teaching ministry in the churches.

Teaching-Learning related to the Bible and teaching-learning experiences involving people of all ages and needs are what the Sunday School is all about - what the Sunday School is for. It expresses the purpose of God. It is crucial for the salvation of the lost and the service of Christians. It is the foremost means for reaching people and achieving the major spiritual objectives of the church.

The Director would like to record his appreciation for the support given in the associtional Sunday School work and the privilege of serving the churches in this way.

NEW WORK COMMITTEE

The New Work Committee of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association has been active during the 1976-1977 associational year. Many of the members have been most faithful in attending whenever a meeting was called.

We have followed with great satisfaction the progress of Pfafftown Baptist Church. We recommend this church, now under watchcare, for full fellowship in our Association.

Our committee, at the direction of the Executive Committee, helped in raising some funds for the Baltimore Associational Project. We were not as successful as we had hoped to be.

Appreciation is hereby expressed to our Director of Missions, the Rev. Thurman Fox, and our associational staff for their wonderful cooperation during the year.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

Associational WMU learning and fellowship activities brought together more people in all age levels this year giving unity and strength to our churches. We received Distinguished Recognition again for our WMU program.

The President of WMU - SBC, Mrs. A. Harrison Gregory, was the featured speaker at the annual meeting in April. This was our best attended annual meeting, and perhaps changing to a fellowship supper and evening meeting better fits our busy schedules.

Baptist Women World Day of Prayer was well planned, and 88 women went to the Prayer Retreat in May at Mundo Vista, where Mr. Carlos Owens, missionary to Tanzania, was guest speaker. In March 280 woman were in First Baptist gym for the "Spring Fling." Baptist Young Women had 73 at their western style "Round-up" at Northwest in April.

Camp Ashburn Acres was the site for the Leaders and GA Camp in June, with three visiting Foreign Missionaries. Associational GA Leaders helped start new GA work in several churches. The GA Banquet at Knollwood had 264, the best attendance ever.

Associational WMU Council members went to leadership conferences at Ridgecrest and Mundo Vista, and led conferences for our WMU leaders in September in two associational locations.

Associational WMU gives Pilot Mountain women, girls, and preschoolers study programs and action programs to help us grow in Bold Missions.

CHURCH LIBRARY/MEDIA CENTER

A Fellowship Dinner was held on June 7, 1977 for the Directors of Church Library/Media Center. Twelve people attended.

A workshop is planned for Saturday, November 5, 1977. Mr. John Hack, of the Church Library Department, Sunday School Board, will lead sessions on "Using Audio-Visuals in Teaching and Leading." Sessions are also planned on "Organizing and Operating a Church Library/Media Center."

Churches without a Library/Media Center are encouraged to send at least one interested representative. All staff members of existing Library/Media Centers are encouraged to attend.

ATHLETIC COMMITTEE REPORT

There is not much to report regarding athletics in the Association this year except that is has been a good year. We had 26 boy's team, ages 9 - 18, and 6 girl's teams in basketball. This was the first year we had a girl's league and hopefully we can continue to grow in this area. From all the reports I have received, it was a successful year for winners and losers. With the type of program we are trying to give these youth and the Christian direction, then no one will ever be losers.

This year was also a first for a mixed softball league. There were only 6 teams, but it was very successful and again we are hoping for expansion in the coming year.

Our budget for this year is in the black, as you will see from the financial report. We anticipate another excellent year and looking forward to having more churches participate in our athletic program.

CHURCH SECRETARIES CONFERENCE

Secretaries on the paid staff (about 50-full and part time) of churches in our Association are excited about getting organized. A steering committee made up of Betty Huff, Knollwood; Peggy Hartzog, Clemmons First; Becky Stewart, Old Town; Peggy Hall, Associational Office; and Thurman Fox, Associational Office, as advisor, have been meeting and making plans since February.

Twenty nine were present in April for the first meeting, which was a time of fellowship and getting acquainted. Knollwood Baptist hosted the May luncheon with thirty attending. Miss Lucy Hoskins, a consultant in the Church Administration Department of the Sunday School Board, and author of Church Secretary; Girl Friday, Saturday, Sunday, Monday. . ., was our special guest in May.

The group met at Winston-Salem First Baptist in September with approximately 22 attending. Plans are in the making for a formal organization with elected leaders.

PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

The Personnel Committee has met infrequently during the past year to consider matters of interest to our Associational staff and their interrelationships. The groundwork has been laid for some possible enlargement of our personnel. The committee was involved in the calling of Reverend Steve Ayers to the Danbury Mission Project.

Dan L. Griffin, Chairman

ORDINATION COMMITTEE

The Ordination Committee of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association received four requests to participate in the examination of candidates for the ministry. The Associational Committee was represented at three of these examinations. They were: Dave Horner and Steve Hardy from Calvary Baptist Church; Bill Mason from Sprague Street Baptist Church. In each of these cases, the candidate had been called or was in the process of being called to a field of service.

The Committee gave unanimous approval of the candidates and recommended that the church proceed with their ordination.

LONG RANGE PLANNING COMMITTEE

On behalf of the Long Range Planning Committee I set forth what we hoped to undertake during the Associational year at the last annual meeting. I regret that the Committee has been idle throughout the Associational year. The Association graciously budgeted us $500, none of which we spent.

MINISTERS' WIVES

"The Ministers" Wives of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association is an organization dedicated to promote fellowship, sharing, and friendship among its members. We have monthly meetings with activities planned by the program committee and inspiration provided by the devotional leader.

This year, in addition to monthly meetings, we had a weekend retreat in October at Mundo Vista; we toured Chinquepenn; and we attended the Candle Tea at Old Salem. Each year the Ministers' Wives try to include more wives and have more varied programs.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL MINISTRIES COMMITTEE

The Chrisitan Social Ministries Committee of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association has involved itself in many areas of work in the past year. This work was done with the belief that it is our responsibility as Christians to involve ourselves in the needs of the people of this community. We accept our commands from our Lord very seriously and work to implement his concern for all peoples.

The severe winter left its toll upon the peoples of this community. An energy work was set up to help those who were without food, fuel, and electricity. A relief work was done in King, N. C., and cooperation was offered through Crisis Control here in this city. Churches were encouraged to send their volunteers and their monies through these emergency endeavors.

The Committee continued its work with the Juvenile Detention Center on Saturday nights. This is a ministry that involves the churches directly in offering a helping hand to the young people being held there. Work was also continued at the Hanging Rock State Park. The purpose of this ministry is to provide spiritual ministry for those who are vacationing at this location. The W.M.U. continued to have devotional services at Goodwill Industries, demonstrating our concern to be a part of the fellowship of Christians with those working and studying there.

Five workshops were held during the year to train 48 teachers who work with the illiterate of our community. These teachers attempt to teach people how to read and through this implement a Christian concern for their spiritual life. Learning to read can open the pages of the Biblical witness for those who previously were unable to enjoy its expression.

Mission work was begun in mobile home parks and apartment complexes. A summer worker was employed to work in the apartments and ten volunteers involved themselves in this ministry. Backyard Vacation Bible School was held at Timberline in three locations.

The Committee was made aware of a ministry to migrant workers in our county. Services were held in Spanish in one of our churches and a one-to-one outreach was attempted to demonstrate the concern of Christ through the living witness of individuals to these people. A follow-up and further development of this ministry is vital for the coming year. Also added this year is a study to enlarge and coordinate the Senior Adult ministries.

The Committee received a request and recommended to the Budget Committee that the Association contribute $1,000 to the beginnings of a Forsyth Prison Chaplaincy program. This purpose is to employ a chaplain who will minister in the name of Christ to those incarcerated in the Forsyth Advancement Center, the Women's Half-Way House, the Juvenile Detention Center and the Forsyth County Jail.

An attempt was made to discover how churches are individually involving themselves in Christian Social Ministries. A questionnaire was mailed out to the churches to determine their areas of involvement. It is anticipated that this information will enable the committee to expand and coordinate existing work.

This year has provided this committee the opportunity to be a part of the Association at work in the areas of concern for the total life of individuals in our community. This involvement is the result of the commands of our Lord to carry his message and his ministry into today's world.

CAMP RETREAT COMMITTEE

The Camp Retreat Committee met in April 1977. The committee discussed the cost and need of operating the camp as a

(1) full camp, as proposed a few years ago
(2) rough camp; i.e., tents, etc.
(3) day camp only
(4) retreat
(5) developed rough camp.

In addition to discussing the cost and need, we compared it with the use of other Baptist facilities and the cost of renting from others; such as, YMCA and other church denominations.

The committee then voted to recommend that the property known as Camp Retreat be sold for the highest possible dolar.

The committee brought the motion to the June 20 Executive Committee Meeting that Camp Retreat be sold. A number of questions were asked and, after considerable discussion, the motion was defeated. The Executive Committee felt that it was better to keep the asset as property rather than money in a savings account.

I. NAME

The name of this Association shall be the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, Inc.

II. OBJECTIVES AND PURPOSES

The objectives and purposes of the Association shall be:

(1) To foster fellowship and unity of faith and practice.

(2) To give and receive assistance in achieving the purposes of the member churches.

(3) To engage in direct, cooperative mission activities which cannot be accomplished by a church acting alone.

(4) To further the spirit of cooperation with Baptist work as set forth by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention.

III. MEMBERSHIP.

This Association shall be composed of messengers from Baptist churches which in their faith, polity, and practice are in harmony with the purpose of the Association, and which are actively participating in the support and programs of work of the Association.

Any newly-constituted Baptist church may be received by vote of the Association into this fellowship of churches when sponsored by a member church and on recommendation of the Mission Committee, following counsel with the church and full investigation by the Committee to confirm evidence that the church is committed to harmonious and active involvement in the purpose and work of the Association. Any previously constituted Baptist Church may be received under watchcare of the Association for one year, after which it may be received by vote of the Association into this fellowship of churches on the basis of like sponsorship, investigation, and recommendation as already indicated.

Should any church disqualify itself by faith, polity, and practice not in harmony with the purpose of the Association, or fail to send a Uniform Associational Letter andor messengers for three consecutive years, the Executive Committee may, upon failing to effect a resolution of the problem, recommend withdrawal of fellowship from the church. A two thirds majority vote in annual session shall be required for this action.

All active pastors, who are members of their respective churches, will be recognized as messengers; further, the number of messengers from each affiliating church, in addition to the pastor, shall be determined as follows: three messengers from each church for the first one hundred members or fraction thereof, and one additional messenger from each church for each additional one hundred members or major fraction thereof, up to ten messengers. Such messengers shall be duly certified in the annual letter sent by the church to the annual meeting of the Association. The courtesies of the floor may be extended to non messengers at the discretion of the body.

IV. MEETINGS

Section 1. Regular Sessions. The Association shall meet annually during the week before the fourth Sunday in October. The Order of Business Committee shall plan the program.

Section 2. Special Sessions. Special Sessions may be called by the Executive Committee as need arises. The Executive Committee shall determine the time, place, and length of called meetings. Written notice of special sessions with a statement of the purpose of the meeting must be sent to all pastors and the church-elected member of the Associational Executive Committee at least two (2) weeks before the session.

V. AUTHORITY

The Association shall be clothed with authority only to advise the churches touching all things pertaining to their interest, but shall in no case control or direct them with reference to their own government or internal policy.

In Associational matters, the Association shall be the authority. Therefore, each officer, committee, organization, and employee shall seek to comply with the purposes and the specific instructions of the Association. The Association may delegate authority as it sees fit in Associational matters.

12. Dr. Hale preached on the subject, "That I May Know Him." A main part of his message dealt with priorities. He said, "Until we put our priorities in order, we don't need to tell much about our success."

12. Ed Stines, pastor, King First Baptist Church, was presented as new moderator of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. Mr. Stines spoke of the very fine annual session which we have had and expressed appreciation for Brother Tom Womble. Also, he spoke of great opportunities in our many responsibilities.

13. The meeting closed with the singing of "Blest Be the Tie."

Respectfully submitted,
Jack Fleming, Clerk

NEW WORK COMMITTEE

The New Work Committee has been at work and has met a number of times this year.

The Committee has received the following letters requesting fellowship with our Association:

(1) We at West Side Baptist Church request to come under the watchcare of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association in October, 1978, and following a year of watchcare, to become a full member.

On September 6, 1977, as a group of interested Baptist people, we held our first meeting at Conrad Enterprises Building, for the purpose of talking over plans for banding together for worship. Twenty-six adults and a number of young people attended. Rev. Paul M. Reese was invited to attend and conduct a devotional period.

Meetings followed on September 13, 20, and 27, 1977, and on October 2, 1977, we held our first official Worship Service with Rev. Paul M. Reese as interim pastor. This meeting was held at the Seventh Day Adventist Church on Country Club Road, which we had leased for the purpose of Worship. Fifty-five persons were present.

On October 16, 1977, this Body constituted a Church, and on November 20, 1977, voted unanimously to name our Body West Side Baptist Church.

On February 7, 1978, this Body called Rev. Paul M. Reese to be our full-time pastor.

We presently have a total of 83 members with two of these awaiting baptism on April 2.

We have a building fund which is growing and are praying and looking for ground on which to build a church.

Attached for your use and information are the present organization leaders at West Side Baptist.
s/Lillian N. Matthews, Church Clerk
s/Rev. Paul M. Reese, Pastor
s/Daniel J. Pierce, Jr., Chairman Deacon Board

(2) We at Sauratown Mountain Baptist Church request fellowship with the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. We understand that we would come under the watchcare of the Association for one year before becoming a full member.

We feel that our beliefs and policy are in harmony with the generally accepted Articles of Faith among Southern Baptists.

Our church is located at Route 4, King, North Carolina. Our church was constituted as a Baptist Church on December 8, 1963. We presently have a total of sixteen (16) members.

On June 4, 1978 the church called Rev. Corbert Gordon to be our pastor. Rev. Gordon is a graduate of Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute. We look forward to your being in touch with us.
s/Rev. Corbert Gordon, Pastor
s/Peggy Martin, Church Clerk

(3) We, the Greater St. Matthews Baptist Church, request fellowship with the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. We understand that we will be under watchcare status for the period of one year. Our polity and articles of faith we believe are the same as that of the Southern Baptists.

s/Miss Brenda Little, Secretary
s/Rev. C. Harold Gill, Pastor

In accordance with Article VIII of the Constitution of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, the New Work Committee recommends that the above churches be received under watchcare of our Association for one year.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Shortly after the beginning of the Associational year, the Sunday School director moved to another area-and we were without a Sunday School director for several months.

The annual Vacation Bible School Clinics were held early in April with training for teachers at every age level as well as special training in Mission Vacation Bible Schools and Big A Clubs and the use of puppets in Vacation Bible School.

A time of fellowship and sharing for church Sunday School directors was offered late in the Spring, and a "brainstorming" meeting of a group which included some church Sunday School directors, ministers of education, pastors, Sunday School teachers and members was held in August.

The Associational Sunday School sponsored a booth at the Dixie Classic Fair in late September and early October. About 7500 cups of cold water were served; several thousand scripture portions as well as many copies of More, Adventure and Event were distributed; puppet shows were presented at intervals throughout the days and evenings.

The Associational Sunday School director received training during Sunday School Week at Ridgecrest, and a full schedule of opportunities for training, fellowship, and inspiration is planned for next year.

Bob Fowler, Director

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

1977-78 was a year filled with opportunities for training, fellowship, inspiration and service offered by the Associational WMU.

Opportunities for training were available at Foreign and Home Mission Study Institutes for the teachers of the graded series books; at a breakfast for Baptist Women presidents and Mission Support chairmen prior to the Week of Prayer for Home Missions; at a Studiact Workshop for Acteens; at a Big A Club training session for BYW's; at the annual Leadership Conference in September.

Opportunities for fellowship and inspiration were available at the Annual Meeting in April at which Mrs. Robert Fling was the guest speaker; at the Baptist Women's "Missions Night Out" dinner in February; at the Baptist Women Retreat at Mundo Vista in May; at a salad supper for Baptist Women presidents in September; at a Baptist Young Women Ice Cream Fellowship; at an Acteens Missions Fair; at a fellowship for GA leaders; at GA Overnights in April and May.

Opportunities for service were offered through a project to provide Christmas gifts for women at the State Correctional Institution at Raleigh - We had agreed to provide 500 stuffed animals, and over 1000 hand-made stuffed animals were delivered by the women of our churches to the Associational office; chapel services were led by our Baptist Women twice a month at Goodwill Industries; our Baptist Women have set up displays at which scripture portions are distributed at Goodwill Industries and the Stokes County Prison Unit; WMU members cooperated with the Associational Sunday Schhol in staffing our booth at the Dixie Classic Fair.

Twelve members of the Associational WMU Council and the Associational Baptist Women Council received training during WMU Week at Ridgecrest, and the WMU Council received training at Mundo Vista in September. The Council has planned many opportunities for our local church WMU members for next year.

BROTHERHOOD

Pilot Mountain Baptist Association Brotherhood sponsored a "Men's Missions Banquet" on September 7, 1978 at Calvary Baptist Church. The program theme was "The Supportive Task of Men to the Ministry of the Church."

The program was highlighted under the inspiration and guidance of Dr. W. Randall Lolley, president of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. A demonstration and explanation of "Chain Saw Ministries" were made by Henry Lankford and Chisman Craig, men of First Baptist Church, Walnut Cove. In addition, Mrs. Robert (Linda) Fowler shared a testimony of the joy of ministering and sharing the Baptist faith with a small Jewish community under the auspices of the Home Mission Board.

We were deeply indebted to Dr. Mark Corts for his and Calvary's warm welcome and delightful meal.

Ron Pinkerton, Associational CSM Director, shared "Life Changing Events" with those in attendance. Ministries of the Association and tasks of the Brotherhood were summarized by Thurman Fox and William A. Chambers. Larry White, in an outstanding way, provided musical interludes that were beautiful, inspirational messages.

William Chambers, Director

EVANGELISM COMMITTEE

The Evangelism Committee cooperated with the Music Committee to present to the Association on May 21 an evangelistic presentation of "Alleluia," the sacred musical designed to share the Gospel and to encourage Christians in outreach. Approximately 1500 people attended. Besides outreach, one of the purposes is to encourage churches to use different means of evangelism; such as, musicals; also to provide fellowship for people in the churches of our Association in an evangelistic orientation.

The Committee would like to encourage churches to be involved in Lay Evangelism Schools. Churches will need to develop youth evangelism strategies, and the State Convention Department of Evangelism stands ready to help to equip adults and young people to reach other young people with the Gospel.

The Committee encourages every church to set some goals for baptisms, for one of the most significant goals in the BOLD Missions Thrust is that every church should double baptisms by 1982 or sooner. Churches are encouraged to develop strategies to reach these goals, by increasing the number of training sessions in evangelism, the different types of outreach, as well as a return to mass evangelism and revival crusades.

Finally, the Committee would like to encourage every pastor in the Association to recruit lay people to attend the 33rd Statewide Evangelism Conference to be held February 5 and 6, 1979, at the Cumberland County Memorial Auditorium in Fayetteville.

LONG RANGE PLANNING COMMITTEE

The Long Range Planning Committee met early in the associational year and requested the Nominating Committee to name several ladies to the committee so that it would more accurately reflect the makeup of the Association. The Committee also requested Mr. Fox to proceed to acquire the assistance of Mr. Willis Bennett in conducting the Association Survey which will be a part of the long range planning process. Mr. Bennett met with the Committee and plans to work with the Association in the months to come.

PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

The Personnel Committee has met numerous times during the past 365 days. Chief among our tasks this year was the creation of a Personnel Handbook which spells out the details of working staff relations within the Associational office. Our more routine work was in giving advice and counsel to Mr. Fox regarding the operation of the office and in the securing of personnel. We upgraded some of the fringe benefits in our request to the Finance and Budget Committee.

OFFICE STUDY COMMITTEE

The Office Study Committee was reorganized in the spring and has met three times.

After much discussion, the Committee decided to pursue the effort to obtain a preferred piece of property on which to build office facilities. We were able to get an option on the property but personnel from the City County Planning Board assure us that it will be unlikely that we can get it rezoned.

The Committee voted unanimously that we go to the Planning Board and then, if necessary, to carry our request for rezoning to the City Council.

MINISTERS' WIVES

The 1977-78 year was one of spirit, joy, and growth for the Pilot Mountain Ministers' Wives. Our monthly meetings gave us opportunities to share in one another's lives and be inspired both spiritually and mentally.

This year we enjoyed special speakers; such as, Mrs. Clara Lolley at our October retreat at Mundo Vista and Mrs. Shirley Corts at a Christmas luncheon at the home of Mrs. Minerva Fox.

As ministers' wives meet together, it provides a special outlet for each one that no other organization can. It helps give each woman a time of escape from the daily pressures of parsonage life and increases feelings of personal worth as a servant of God.

CHURCH SECRETARIES CONFERENCE

"Getting to Know your Boss as a Person" was the program topic for the first meeting of the Church Secretaries Conference this associational year. Twenty-four were present for this meeting on March 1 at Western Sizzlin. Dr. Kirk Neely, pastor of Family Ministries at Knollwood, was program personality.

The group met on May 24-again at Western Sizzlin-during Associational Emphasis Week with twenty present. Thurman Fox, executive director of missions, led the program on "The Association in Action."

Clemmons First hosted the Conference September 20 with twenty-six present. Wesley Brett, director for administration, department of Pastoral Care, Baptist Hospital, presented a program dealing with various stresses church secretaries encounter.

At the September meeting the group organized by adopting guidelines and electing officers. Leaders for the 1978-79 year are president, Peggy Hall, associational office; vice-president, Clara Johnston, Konnoak; secretarytreasurer, Nell Badgett, Messiah Moravian. Program Committee: Betty Huff, Knollwood, chairman; Jean Rabil, Northwest; Louise Young, Calvary, and Susan Maxey, Walnut Cove First. Communications Committee: Joyce Love, Clemmons First, chairman; Betty Canada, Lewisville, and Peggy Clawson, Winston-Salem First.

CSC will meet quarterly-the third Wednesday of December, March, June, and September. The purpose of CSC is (1) to identify and properly relate the various roles of the secretary on the church staff; (2) to provide opportunities for fellowship and to stimulate an interchange of ideas; (3) to develop a better understanding of the work of the church secretary; and (4) to provide programs that will deepen the spiritual understanding of the secretary, improve her performance, increase her personal effectiveness, acquaint her with the latest tools, and encourage interests of others in the vocation of the secretary. One goal for the coming year is to provide a workshop that will offer practical helps in at least one area of the church-related secretary's work.

EVENING SESSION

24. The evening session began with the singing of "Holy, Holy, Holy" led by Larry White.

25. Scripture, I Peter 2:1-10a, was read by Melvyn Curlee, pastor of Glenn View Baptist Church. Talmadge Wall, pastor of Unity Baptist Church, led in prayer.

26. New pastors and staff members were introduced: Rev. and Mrs. Peter Gilliland, Bethania Baptist Church; Rev. Alan Johnson, Griffith Baptist Church; Brant Hoots, Mineral Springs Baptist Church; Rev.and Mrs. Talmadge Wall, Unity Baptist Church; Brent Helton, Ardmore Baptist Church; and Rev. and Mrs. Melvyn Curlee, Glenn View Baptist Church.

27. M. M. Goss, Resolutions Committee chairman, moved that their Committee's report be adopted. Motion was seconded and passed.

28. Billy Moreland, Mission Center Committee chairman, presented their Committee's report as information.

29. Cecil Cave, Interracial Committee chairman, reported that the Committee "has sought to foster the acceptance of people of all races to our Baptist fellowship and association of churches." The report was received as information.

30. Joe Coltrane presented the Evangelism Committee report. The report was received as information.

31. The Sunday School and Woman's Missionary Union reports were presented by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fowler, who used an informative puppet show to call attention to Sunday School and WMU activities for the year.

32. Ronald Ryan, Athletic Committee, gave the Athletic Committee report, emphasizing the date fees are due for participating in this year's basketball league.

33. Gerald Hewitt, Associational Strategy Planning Committee chairman, presented the Committee's report, which was received as information.

34. Using an overhead projector, J. L. Wilson presented a report on "Support Ministries" of our Association.

35. Larry White, associational music director, presented his report which included plans for music activities for the year.

36. Messengers and visitors joined together in singing "Come, Thou Fount."

37. The Ardmore Baptist Church choir, Brent Helton, director, presented special music

38. Thurman Fox, executive director of missions, presented the Director of Missions report. Thurman called attention to the big word in missions, which is "go" and indicated that this applies to the "down and out" and the "up and out." Essentials in missions mentioned were:

(1) We must become AWARE. (2) We must become EQUIPPED. (3) We must become MOTIVATED. (4) We must become INVOLVED (recognize and utilize the gifts and abilities in lay people). (5) We must COOPERATE. We can accomplish more things cooperatively than we can individually or collectively. We are to "take the word to every creature and you don't have to go 'afar off' to do that."

39. Ike Worrell, Finance Committee chairman, presented the 1979-1980 budget and made a motion that the $86,879.80 budget be accepted. Motion was seconded. Discussion followed. Gerald Hewitt, interim pastor of South Fork Baptist Church, made a motion that travel allowance be moved from "salary" to "support ministry." Motion was seconded. Billy Moreland, pastor of Peter's Creek Baptist Church, asked that Mr. Fox respond; he did by saying that it did not make any difference to him. This motion failed 54-53. The budget was accepted unanimously.

40. Larry White led in the singing of "Stand Up, Stand Up For Jesus."

41. Ed Stines introduced Burke Holland, director of Chaplaincy and Language Missions, Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, and former pastor of Old Town Baptist Church.

42. The Ardmore Baptist Church choir presented special music.

43. Mr. Holland spoke of three words about which we are hearing much in the Bold Missions Thrust—giving, going, growing. He presented scripture from Acts 3 and gave examples of many needs in prison and refugee areas. He pointed out that the man healed in Acts 3 followed the apostles into the temple and that if we are not afraid to touch people, they will follow us into church.

44. Ed Stines expressed appreciation for the message by Mr. Holland and thanked the associational office staff for much work done in preparation for the annual meeting.

45. Neal Eller, pastor of Bethany Baptist Church, led in the prayer of benediction. With this prayer the ninety-fourth session of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association ended.

Respectfully submitted:

Ed Stines, Moderator
Jack Fleming, Clerk

OFFICE STUDY COMMITTEE REPORT

Our Committee has met three times this year but have not been able to zero in on a suitable site to recommend as a home for our associational office. The property being considered last year did not materialize. The owner increased the price until we did not feel it advisable to pursue it further in trying to get it rezoned.

We met several times with one of our leading realtors, who is also a member of this Committee. We are thinking at this point of looking for something adjacent to or near our two hospitals. We are calling several of our leading businessmen and real estate men to a meeting shortly——and seek their help and suggestions. After a survey in this direction we will bring our findings to the Office Study Committee for their consideration.

We request your prayers as we continue trying to find a location that you will be proud of.

CHRISTIAN SOCIAL MINISTRIES COMMITTEE REPORT

During the 1978-79 church year, the Christian Social Ministries Committee has sought to serve the Pilot Mountain Association by making known the opportunities for helping people and by supporting the many social ministries of the people and churches of our Association. Under the direction and leadership of Ron Pinkerton and with the financial support of the Association, the Committee has touched many people and churches. It is these contacts between the churches and people in need that the churches, the Committee, and the Association can measure their successes in Christian Social Ministries.

The overall purpose of the Christian Social Ministries Committee has been to promote Christian social ministries by member churches. The first goal was to make the need known to the churches through slide presentations, quarterly newsletters, and involvement of Committee members. The second goal was to equip individuals and churches to meet the needs. The third goal was to support existing programs and to involve additional churches in meeting the needs of people.

During the course of the year, the Committee found that each individual and each church was at a different stage of involvement in Christian social ministries. In some cases, we followed the lead of churches and gave moral and financial assistance. In other cases we were able to lead individuals and churches to nurture new programs. In every case the achievement of the Committee was measured in the success if individuals and churches in serving the Lord by helping people in need.

In addition to specific ministries, Ron Pinkerton has provided a clearinghouse for new programs and constant coordination with other churches and agencies in serving people in need.

RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

Gratitude is expressed to the Ardmore Baptist Church for hospitality in opening their doors for the Annual Meeting of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, 1979.

We are also grateful for the leadership of the officers of the Association. Special recognition is accorded representatives of the North Carolina and Southern Baptist Conventions and their agencies for exhibits and unique contributions to our enlightenment and inspiration.

MISSION CENTER COMMITTEE REPORT

Your Committee met during the year for the purpose of looking at the work of the Danbury Mission. We report the following:

1. The report is very favorable from the community. Kind words are expressed for the work of Brother Ron Settle from the Mission and the people within the community.
2. There is some much needed repair work to be done on the building. This needs to be carries out as soon as money is available.
3. The work of the volunteer hospital chaplaincy was begun October 1, 1979. Most of the money needed for the construction of a chapel has been raised. The chaplaincy program has been well received from the patients and staff of the Hospital.

Billy Moreland, Chairman

INTERRACIAL COMMITTEE REPORT

Your Interracial Committee functions on the biblical premise that God is no respector of persons. We adhere to the belief that Christ died for all people of all races and that He has commissioned us to proclaim the Gospel to those at home and abroad. We believe that all Christians are brothers and sisters in Christ, should work as such, and cooperate with one another in serving him. We continue to encourage participation in cooperative ministries among the various congregations within the territory of our Association.

Your Interracial Committee has sought to foster the acceptance of people of all races to our Baptist fellowship and association of churches.

EVANGELISM COMMITTEE REPORT

The Evangelism Committee of the Association has been working very diligently in recent days to plan a program during the 1979-80 church year which will assist our churches in developing a deeper dedication to evangelistic outreach and a wider knowledge of how to enlist non-Christians in the cause of Christ. Our Committee is in the process of planning an Association-wide Evangelistic Rally on Sunday night, May 18, 1980, that will inspire us to become involved in reaching people for Christ. This program will consist of inspiring music and worship— highlighted by a dynamic message by one of the leading pastors in the Southern Baptist Convention. On Monday night, May 19, there will be five evangelism workshops led by outstanding, inspiring persons: (1) Youth Evangelism; (2) Music Evangelism; (3) Inner-city Evangelism; (4) Suburban Evangelism: and (5) Evangelism in the Open Country. The Monday night workshops will be concluded by a closing rally featuring another outstanding pastor.

Those of us on the Evangelism Committee are very excited about this Spring Evangelistic Emphasis for the churches in our Association. We hope that you will begin to make plans to share in this important experience and to pray that God will pour out His finest blessings upon us as we work together to share His love with others.

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

The Sunday School Department of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association offered several opportunities for training and fellowship during 1978-79. Training in Vacation Bible School work was received by our Associational VBS Team at Caraway. The VBS Team then led conferences on VBS work at every age level and in mission VBS work. Art Burcham of the Sunday School Board led the Pastor/VBS Director "early-bird" workshop. A Sunday School Puppetry Workshop was offered in May. Several associational Sunday School workers received training at Ridgecrest. A workshop for pastors and Sunday School directors offered training in annual planning of the church Bible-teaching program. The associational Sunday School director was invited by several church Sunday School directors to help in various ways, and he was available for that.

The Sunday School Department sponsored a booth at the Dixie Classic Fair. The booth included an eight-foot square map of the Assocition which pin-pointed the location of each of our churches. Puppet shows were presented throughout each day and evening during which an invitation to attend Sunday School was given. Copies of "Look and Listen," "More," "Adventure" and "Event" were distributed as well as portions of scripture from the American Bible Society. People manning the booth were able to become friends with several children of "joint" owners on the midway—a Bible was given to one of these children who visited our booth several times a day to stock up on "More" and "Adventure." "An Invitation to Grow," the brochure which describes the Home Mission Board's free correspondence Bible course, was distributed. Approximately 5500 cups of cold water were also distributed.

A Sunday School Outreach Conference using the "Reaching" series of books has been scheduled for October 29-30 at Becks Baptist Church.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION REPORT

Opportunities for fellowship, inspiration and training were available for WMU leaders and members on each age level and in general WMU work during 1978-79. Training was offered in all these areas at the annual Leadership Conference and for every age level at the Foreign Mission Study Institute. Mission Friends leader training was offered at three area workshops in the Spring. GA leadership received training in day camping and participated in an idea sharing time. GA members went on a trip to Missions Adventureland, had fellowship and inspiration at two sleep-overs and a weiner roast-handbook study. The highlight of the year for the Acteens was their trip to the third National Acteens Convention in Kansas City. Acteens members received training at a handbook study. Carolyn Hopkins, state Acteens director, was the speaker at the Acteens Vocations Dinner. BYW presidents participated in a Sharing Time early in the year, and BYW members and their husbands heard David Bruce speak at their annual fellowship dinner. Baptist Women observed their World Day of Prayer, had a fellowship dinner, a prayer-share brunch and a retreat at Mundo Vista. The Forecaster was published quarterly throughout the year. The WMU director led sharing times with church WMU directors in ten group meetings during January. The member of the WMU Council were available to help church WMU organizations as requested, and visited in many of our churches during the year in doing this. The Annual Meeting of the WMU of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association was in April with Dr. William G. Tanner, executive director of the Home Mission Board, as guest speaker.

ASSOCIATIONAL STRATEGY PLANNING COMMITTEE REPORT

The Associational Strategy Planning Committee met several times during the year. Objectives of the Committee were discussed to insure understanding among the membership. The Committee was then divided into two major sub-committies: church study committee and community study committee. These sub-committees were given responsibility for data gathering. Data about the churches, the community and projections for the future are necessary for analysis and long range planning.

These sub-committees are still working and should have data for analysis and formulation of recommendations during the coming year. The Committee set its goal to refrain from speculations and opinion making until the data was available. The danger is that data is gathered and only that informations used which is necessary to support existing opinions rather than formulation of opinions after study of the information. The process is longer and frustrating to persons who already have the answers, but the product will be significant following good planning procedures.

At some point in the work of the Committee, staff assistance will be necessary. Plans should be made now to provide additional staff assistance, at least temporarily, to format, type, and duplicate reports for the Committee, if the present staff is not able to do additional work.

This is an important project. The report which comes from this Committee and the recommendations accepted by the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association must be supported by adequate resources to carry out the recommendations. Otherwise, we are not good stewards. Long range planning must be supported by long range thinking. The time to begin that long range thinking is now.

Assumptions: (1) In SBC life, the greatest potential is in the association. (2) The most crucial factor in achieving potential is the Director of Missions. (3) A desire to see growth and development within the association. (4) Many basic tasks best done by association. Dreams: (1) Build strong fellowship. (2) Do bold planning (long range strategy planning) to meet total needs of association. (3) Use of Home Mission study, 1981 on "The Association." (4) Every church in association have a missions committee. (5) Give high priority to church growth.

PERSONNEL COMMITTTEE

The Personnel Committee of our Association has met ten times during this past year and, for the most part, the Agenda for each meeting of the Committee has been discussing the role of the Director of Missions and the relationship of the Director of Missions to various phases of the work and individuals in the Association.

This past summer, following a report that our Committee had made to the Executive Board, our Committee made a real effort to evaluate the work of our Director of Missions. We conducted a survey involving the pastors, involving committee Chairmen of Association committees, Directors of programs in the Association, and several dozen other individuals. On the basis of this survey and conversations which we'd had, our Committee concluded that our Director of Missions has a broad base of support within this Association. Among the leadership there is a large proportion who appreciate the work he is doing and affirm him in his work. The consensus of our Committee is this: that it is our responsibility at this time to support our Director of Missions, to encourage him in his work, and to cooperate with him in order that we might go forward in this Association.

On the basis of this decision, our Committee has recommended to the Finance Committee that we include in this year's budget a portion of salary for a Director of Missions-Ministries within the Association. This position would be somewhat analogous to the previous position we had of Director of Christian Social Ministries as far as support is concerned. However, the scope of the work of this person would be much broader than that of simply the Director of Christian Social Ministries. This staff person, the Director of Missions-Ministries, would coordinate and encourage and help us in direct mission ministries within this Association.

The Personnel Committee takes seriously the responsibility that has been assigned to it. We intend to work closely with the Director of Missions, to work with the new staff person when that person is called by the Association, to help clarify relationships and to strengthen the leadership within the Association in order that we might move ahead to do the job that we have given ourselves to do.

MINISTERS' WIVES

The Ministers' Wives of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association had a good year of fellowship, learning, and service.

We had the opportunity of hosting the State Ministers' Wives meeting in connection with the Baptist State Convention in November of 1979. Several of our ladies were on the program, and the others served at a lovely tea in the afternoon. We received many compliments from our guests.

Officers for 1980-81 are President - Mrs. Paul Wonders, Becks; Vice President - Mrs. Peter Gilliland, Bethania; Secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Thurman Fox, Winston-Salem First; Devotions - Mrs. Herman Kitchen, Bethany; Program - Mrs. Melvyn Curlee, Glenn View, and Mrs. Steve Ayers, Union Cross; Hospitality - Mrs. Roy Liner, Knollwood; and Historian Mrs. Jack Noffsinger, Knollwood.

The first meeting this year was a dinner, held at Knollwood Baptist Church. We made plans to add night meetings for the ladies who work during the day.

We are looking forward to a mini-retreat to be held in the gym at Becks Baptist Church October 16. We have planned for a time of inspiration, sharing and recreation. Other programs and dates for this year are:

November 20 "Share a Christmas Craft: - Hattie Bell Allen's home - 10:00 & 7:30
December 11 Christmas party and drama at the Noffsingers - 10:00 & 7:30

MISSION CENTER

Following is a report from Ron Settle that will give an indication of work being done at Danbury.

"CHANGED PERCEPTIONS ON THE ROAD THROUGH DANBURY: Reflections on the Dan River Mission"

by Ron Settle

Perceptions change. Before the autumn of 1978, Danbury was little more than a small blur upon a highway mileage marker---entering through the eye's corner, but never making it through the mind's door. It was but a bit of quaint scenery glimpsed momentarily while gearing down grades and gliding around curves, through the mountains' foothills, en route to Hanging Rock State Park. The township was a quiet curiosity, like scenes stolen from postcards of rural America displayed fleetingly through a windshield. As through a central corridor, the road carried one along before the faces of stately old houses; a large one filled with the working of law, and those more modestly filled with the everyday workings of life. And there, on a hill edged in elegant simplicity by a wall of Blue Ridge stone, a white frame church invited the recording of its image upon the film of the traveler's camera if not upon the feelings of his heart. Then, in the quickness of a shutter's clicking, Danbury was left behind. Yes, perceptions do indeed change; they have for me. Yet, this is not because of the mere passage of time, but rather by the insights that can only be gleaned through involvement.

Danbury and that little frame church hold special meanings for me now, for I have looked into the houses of law, and living, and worship and seen that which always calls for involvement: people and their needs. When first presented with the possibility of involvement with the Dan River Mission, my feelings were ambivalent at best. As a seminarian, I had the exterior compulsion of needing a place to work, and as one committed to Christian ministry, I had the interior compulsion of wanting a place to serve. But the small size and unfamiliar setting of the mission in Danbury made me wonder whether either force would compel me enough to assume the challenge that the work posed. In retrospect, I am grateful that the two compulsions acted in tandem to bring me to the community, for the very things which make work in Danbury challenging have also made it satisfying.

The Dan River Mission could hardly be said to have "First Church" status; averaging around thirty people for Sunday morning worship doesn't quite qualify for a real air of prestige. But the function of the mission seems in a sense to move it beyond even "First Church" importance, for, in fact, it is presently the only church representing any "mainline" denomination in Danbury and the surrounding community. Perhaps the major realization which has infused into my perception of Danbury the greatest sense of commitment and satisfaction is the patent need for the witness it provides. In Danbury, the witness of the mission and the work of its pastor are not superfluous---they provide something nobody else is providing. And they have not been without effect.

The missions's congregational life is growing stronger, and interest in the church as a gathering place for worship is increasing, I think, noticeably. From throughout the community, people of different denominational backgrounds and many having none at all are attending the services. Not only is looking out over a congregation composed of such a cross-section a heartening thing, but it is made even more encouraging to see a farmer, a teacher, a store clerk, and a banker all seated together in worship. More and more, through worship and various forms of outreach, the mission is becoming a place of community consciousness; a church which the people of Danbury are seeing as a part of their life as a community. Such a spirit has been well exhibited by the way in which the area scouting program has in the last year identified itself with the mission, visiting and participating in the services in quite some numbers on Sundays of special emphasis. As well, special celebrations of the church, such as programs presented at Christmas-time, have drawn enthusiastic response and support from throughout the community. In this process, active participation among those who regularly attend the mission has been growing. More persons, including young people of high school age, are becoming comfortable with themselves assuming responsibilities; making plans and taking part. These are rudimentary but, nonetheless, important trends. On the whole, the Baptist witness in Danbury seems to be gaining credibility as the work of the mission progresses, and the increasing identification between the mission and the community should be, it seems, of prime importance in the future.

Two very vital extensions of the work in Danbury have been in the summer ministry at Hanging Rock State Park and the pastoral care ministry at the Stokes-Reynolds Memeorial Hospital. During this past camping season, worship services which I conducted in the park each Sunday morning consistently reached between about twelve and twenty persons each week. As well, the mission was often visited during these months by campers who had noticed its proximity to the park. The volunteer chaplaincy program at the hospital in Danbury has been most challenging and rewarding. Presently, a dozen area pastors are involved in ongoing chaplaincy training and rotating service as "chalplain of the week." Responses from the hospital administration, medical staff, and patients themselves have confirmed this enterprise as one that is providing a much needed and appreciated service.

Through involvement in ministry, Danbury has become for me more than a place---it is people; the joys and heartaches we have shared, and the growth we have undergone together. For as my perceptions have been changed, I feel that theirs have too: in an elderly woman's confidence in her pastor's advice which frees her to overcome her fear and let a doctor attend to her physical needs...in experiencing with a group of young people the production of their first drama in commemoration of Christ's birth...in the flow of new life that moves through a hospital geriatric ward as older hearts are lifted by a group of young carolers...and in a solemn yet sweet moment of worship when diverse hands join around an altar and in silent gratitude feel themselves bound by a common faith. This past Christmas I once again moved along the main road through Danbury, but in a scene of passage quite unlike that former blur through a windshield in the days when the homes were nameless and faceless. This time I walked...no, really I marched, and I was not alone. We went together, some twenty-five of us; carolers, celebrants in song bearing the news from home to home that God has been born into the world. And then I knew more deeply than ever that the message we sang is true. For along the roads of Danbury we had met Him many times, and for that knowledge our perceptions could never again be quite the same.

ATHLETIC COMMITTEE

The Asociational Recreation Program is growing both in participation and interest. In the Basketball Program we had 5 teams in the Girls League, 8 teams in the High School Boys League, 7 teams in the Pioneer League, and 7 Crusader teams. The season began in December and concluded with a tournament in February. The tournament champs in their respective leagues were: Becks - Girls; Old Town - High School Boys; Lewisville - Pioneer; Calvary - Crusader. Thanks to the Becks Baptist Church for their cooperative and generous spirit in making their gym available.

The Softball Program had good participation and excellent leadership from Herschel Redding, the Softball Commissioner. The top teams in the League were: First Place - Calvary; Second Place - College Park; Third Place - Bethany; and the Sportsmanship Award went to Northwest.

This Recreation Program provides an excellent opportunity for church ministry and growth. I hope more churches will participate next year.

EVANGELISM COMMITTEE

The Evangelism Committee met during the 1979-80 church year on two occasions and made plans to have an evangelism rally and clinic on reaching people for Christ. The events were to have been held on May 18 and 19 at the Calvary Baptist Church in Winston-Salem. However, due to conflicts in scheduling, some of our main leaders were unable to come at that time, and so the rally was postponed. It is hoped that it will be possible for the committee to reschedule it during the present denominational year. All of the churches will receive news of its taking place when it is put on the calendar.

We are planning to have a lucheon meeting for the pastors of our Association with Dr. Victor Cole, associate in the Division of Evangelism for the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. At this meeting he will discuss with us the "Bold Witness Thrust" presently being promoted by our Convention and share with us ways in which we may implement this concept in our local churches.

We believe that these are exciting times to be involved in sharing God's love with others, and those of us on the Evangelism Committee urge you to . . .

"Share His love by telling what the Lord has done for you,
Share His love by sharing of your faith,
And show the world that Jesus Christ is real to you ev-'ry moment, ev-'ry day."

INTERRACIAL COMMITTEE

The essence of the activity of the Interracial Committee during the associational year centered around the funding of the work of a summer worker among Blacks. Through the budget of the Interracial Committee in joint funding with General Baptists and the Cooperative Ministry of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, Darryl Robinson, a black Wake Forest University student, was supported in ministry for ten weeks. Working under the direction of the Association, Mr. Robinson worked in Black housing projects, primarily conducted Backyard Bible studies.

OFFICE STUDY COMMITTEE

In 1707 the first association in America was formed by five Baptist churches in Philadelphia whose purpose was to help organize and strengthen new churches. Around 1742 they sent their first missionary to Charleston, S.C. This was the beginning of Baptist work in the South, resulting in the first association's being formed, which was the Sandy Creek Baptist Association in Sandy Creek, N.C., from whose structure the organization of the Southern Baptist Convention was perpetuated.

In reality the association is the mother of the State Baptist Convention, Home Mission Board, as well as the Southern Baptist Convention. The association has become more and more the agency through which much of our Convention program is promoted. Therefore, it is imperative that we have adequate headquarters from which to carry on the work.

For many years our Association has realized the need for a permanent home for our offices and headquarters. Many committees have given much thought and made research for a proper location or facilities. Effort has been made to obtain certain pieces of property but, due to zoning laws or other reasons, were not available. It is our feeling that our headquarters should be as near as possible to our hospitals, so we are centering our search in this area.

We have met and discussed our needs with several of our realtors who have promised to be on the lookout for a site for our permanent office.

The Office Study Committee has been enlarged, bringing new ideas into the committee and possibly helping speed up the securing of a permanent home.

We covet your prayers and suggestions as this important task continues.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

ASSIST --- The acronym adopted by the Sunday School Board for a concept which can be of vital aid to local church Sunday Schools stands for Associational Sunday School Improvement Support Team. The team which has begun forming in Pilot Mountain Baptist Association includes several consultants at each age level as well as consultants to Sunday School general officers. Our team spent many hours training and brain-storming together in order to be able to come to your church and provide personal assistance to your Sunday School. A number of churches here have already asked for this type help from one or more of our consultants, and we've been happy to be able to provide it. This team is also equipped to lead conferences in Sunday School work, and several members of the team led in a curriculum workshop in the winter---a workshop at which every piece of Sunday School literature was available for examination, and team members helped those attending to understand how best to use the literature.

A Pastor-Sunday School Director workshop was held to help those people plan the year's Sunday School work. Vacation Bible School clinics were held in two different areas of the Association after the initial training for Vacation Bible School Directors. Backyard Bible Club training was offered at those clinics as well as to some individual churches who requested it.

The Sunday School also directed the work of two summer missionaries in conducting Backyard Bible Clubs. Again this year, the Sunday School of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association sponsored a booth at the Dixie Classic Fair.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

This has been an exciting year for the WMU of Pilot Mountain Baptist Association. This was the year of our first associational GA Camp, and it was a joyful experience for the 70 girls and approximately 20 adults who participated. This year the Baptist Women had very special opportunities offered them as Laura Frye came from the Home Mission Board to lead in a Lifestyle Evangelism Conference and as Barbara Joiner spoke at the annual Fellowship Dinner. Acteens had good times together---especially at a Missions Fair in the Spring. BYWs had a variety of lifestyle changes suggested to them at their Fall banquet and then at a Mission Action Awareness Conference in the Spring. Mission Friends leaders were offered special workshop training.

The WMU Leadership Conference in September of 1979 had a record attendance, and the Annual Associational WMU Meeting in April gave opportunities for climaxing the year by making Life-Changing Commitments. Our WMU Countil was available continually for personal assistance to local churches and their WMU leaders.

Approximately 20 activities were offered this year --- several at each age level and several which included every age level --- to make this a very exciting and fulfilling year.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee of the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association met April 26, 1980 at the associational office for the purpose of auditing the associational financial records. Auditing procedure for the expenditures consisted of reviewing all vouchers for proper authorization and, after every tenth voucher, reviewing the next five in comparison with the associational books for accuracy in amounts, check numbers, categorization, and date.

The procedure for the receipts consisted of comparing every twenty-fifth entry in the log with associational books to ascertain accuracy in recording the amount and identity of donor.

NO ERROR WAS FOUND HAVING ANY IMPACT ON THE BALANCE.

Minor discrepancies included one voucher with the purchase figures reversed; another with an incorrect posting number, which had correctly been recorded in the books; and six vouchers without the authorization of the Executive Director.

Account Balance Confirmations for balance as of October 31, 1979, were run May 19 through 29, 1980 on the associational Checking and Passbook Savings accounts at Wachovia Bank & Trust Company; the Savings Certificates at First Federal Savings and Loan; and the Investment account at Dean Witter Reynolds. All monies were present and accounted for.

The Audit Committee recommends for the associational bookkeeping procedures:

(1) that greater attention be given to separating the sales tax from the purchase amount on the voucher form.

(2) that an additional blank be placed at the botoom of the voucher for postage and handling costs.

(3) that void checks be posted in the ledger.

(4) that invoice documents attached to the check requests should correspond to the total amount of the request.

CHURCH SECRETARIES CONFERENCE

Our Church Secretaries Conference continues to strive to fulfill its purpose of providing opportunities for fellowship among church secretaries in the Pilot Mountain Baptist Association, and to provide programs that will deepen the spiritual understanding of the secretary, improve performance, increase effectiveness and acquaint her with the latest tools. We have an average of 20 who attend the quarterly meetings.

Officers for 1979-80 were: President - Jean Rabil, Northwest; Vice President - Nell Badgett, Messiah Moravian; Secretary/Treasurer - Sharon Almaraz, Knollwood; Program Committee: Peggy Clawson, chairman, Winston-Salem First; Carolyn Gilbert, Ardmore; Pat Koontz, Edgewood; and Peggy Hall, Associational Office. Communications Committee: Janice Messer, chairman, Associational Office; Eloise Howell, Mineral Springs; and Billie Kern, Winston-Salem First.

For our December 20 meeting secretaries invited other members of their church staff to participate in the Christmas Love Feast. The meaningful Love Feast was held at Messiah Moravian Church and led by the Reverend Graham Rights.

After a short business meeting and lunch at Knollwood Baptist in March, the group went to Edgar B Home Decorating Center for a tour and seminar on "Trends in Decorating."

A Celebration of Talen in Arts, Crafts, and Hobbies" was the theme of the June 19 meeting. This was held at Northwest Baptist Church picnic shelter. The display and sharing of hobbies and crafts along with the delicious picnic luncheon made this a special meeting that helped us get to know one another better.

Our September meeting was hosted by Winston-Salem First. Mary Ruth Woodall shared with the group her feelings and experiences after serving over 20 years in a church office. Mary Ruth is retiring in the spring from the staff of Winston-Salem First, where she served as Director of Finance.

Ruth Lamb, Union Grove, attended the Church Secretaries Certification Seminar at Ridgecrest in March. She passed the exam and received her basic certification.

Officers for the 1980-81 year are: President - Peggy Clawson, Winston-Salem First; Vice President - Nell Badgett, Messiah Moravian; Secretary-Treasurer - Carolyn Gilbert, Ardmore; Program Planning: Sue Ann Clark, chairman, Clemmons First; Janice Messer, Associational Office; Jean Rabil, Northwest; Peggy Ziglar, Walkertown. Communications Committee: Clara Johnston, chairman, Konnoak; Nancy Faust, Winston-Salem First.
